Trust Shiraz 2010

Crystal Hill vineyard, Nagambie Lakes, Victoria

$28

Don Lewis and Narelle King, the winemakers behind Victoria's Tar and Roses label, made their first Trust Shiraz in 2004. King writes, "The fruit is mostly from Don's vineyard, Crystal Hill, a hungry bit of dirt riddled with ironstone and quartz across the river from Tahbilk. It's very low yielding and produces pretty special wine." Certainly it did in 2010 – a rich but medium-bodied red with deep, earthy-savoury flavours, sympathetically cut with oak flavours and with a load of chewy but soft tannins providing the satisfying structure and finish.
